

Driving Directions from Palermo

*Please, use Google Maps to the Anna Tasca Lanza Cooking School!
But these written directions should aid you in arriving.*

From Palermo take the Autostrada A19 in the direction of Messina/Catania. (Green signs point the way)

After Termini Imerese, stay right to follow green signs towards Catania. There will be a forced detour at the Scillato exit but follow the detour and you come back to the highway. Take the exit at Tremonzelli. Follow directions to Caltavuturo and Valledolmo at the roundabout.

Turn left after 3.4 km, following signs for Valledolmo bivio/Vallelunga. Turn right after about 3 km following signs towards Valledolmo/Tenuta Regaleali. At the first intersection (after about 5 km) stay straight following a blue sign for Tenuta Regaleali. Arrive at a roundabout after about 2.5 km and stay to the left (signs for Valledolmo centro / Carabinieri. You will see a big glass building on your right. You want to take the far left road).

Follow the road downhill for about 3 km and then turn left (sign for Tenuta Regaleali).

After 1.5 km turn right following signs for Tenuta Regaleali, then after 1.5 km take a left at the sign for Tenuta Regaleali. After 1.5 km turn left, this time towards Case Vecchie/Punto Vendita (a brown sign).

Stay on this road until you come to the first split. Either take the gravel road that brings you in front of Case Vecchie or stay left on the paved road until you come to the first intersection, turn right. You'll see Case Vecchie on your right and turn right. (Please know the roads are rough but you should be on the right track!)
